

Thank you very much.

We're nearly at the end of our time together. How time flies when we're enjoying our Christmas favorites.

For our next to last number, we'll play a song composed by the singing cowboy, Gene Autry. It's the story of a real cool gentleman made out of snow who came to life one day when some children put a magical hat on his head. Who are we talking about? Yep! It's "Frosty, The Snowman."
