

Thank You.

We'll pick up the tempo just a bit with this next song written in 1971 collaboration with Lori Lieberman after she was inspired by a Don McLean performance. It became a #1 hit in 1973 for Roberta Flack and was inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame in 1999.

The title of the song is "Killing Me Softly," referring to the Don McLean original inspiration that was made on Lori Lieberman. Enjoy!
