

Thank you.

Our next song was written in 1964 by Roger Miller. Remember Roger? It tells the story of a hobo who, despite being poor, revels in his freedom to do what he pleases whenever he pleases. Would anyone have a guess as to the name of this song?

Right! Here we go with "King Of The Road."