

Thank you very much.

For this third great hit by Dionne Warwick, we'll again turn to the compositional wizardry of Burt Bacharach. This song convey's a woman's concern for her man who's serving in the Vietnam War. This song was released ion 1967 and became a million-selling hit, reaching the #4 spot on the Billboard Top 100. Aretha Franklin also produced a notable recording.

Here's _____ with this great Warwick hit - "I Say A Little Prayer For You."
