

Thank you.

Our next selection is a novelty song written way back in 1922 and sung by Eddie Cantor in the Broadway show "Make It Snappy."

This is a grocer's lament when faced with the fact that he or she may be currently out of stock on a commodity in demand. Here's _____ to sing about this sad fact "Yes, We Have No Bananas."