

Thank you.

Thank you very much. For our final song by King Louie, we'd like to take you forward in time to 1964 when Louie Armstrong recorded the biggest hit of his illustrious career. The song went to #1 on the pop charts, making him the oldest artist in the US to achieve that honor

The song was in a famous Broadway musical of the same name starring Carol Channing. Do you remember Carol? Does anyone have a guess as what we're going to play for you now? Right - "Hello Dolly."

Enjoy!
