

Thank you. How are we doing? Are you enjoying your trip down Memory Lane?

We'll slow things up a bit for our next selection, written back in 1935 for the movie "Every Night At Eight." Since that time, it's become a standard, with recordings by more than 100 musical artists. You name the artist, and he or she has probably recorded it.

Here's our version of this ballad - "I'm In The Mood For Love."
