

Thank you. How are we doing? Are you enjoying your trip down Memory Lane?

Our next selection was written back in 1948 and tells a folk tale of a cowboy who has a vision of red-eyed, steel-hooved cattle thundering across the sky. It's been recorded by artists such as Vaughn Monroe, Bing Crosby, Frankie Laine, Peggy Lee, and Johnny Cash.

Here's our version of this classical tale - "The Ghost Riders In The Sky."
Enjoy!
