

Thank you very much.

The tune of our next carol has its origins in 15th century France. The Latin text was first documented in Germany in 1710, and an 1861 translation is the most prominent one in the English-speaking world.

Here's _____ with a poignant request: "O Come, O Come, Emanuel."