

Thank you very much. Have you had a good time here in Italy this afternoon/evening? We certainly have enjoyed our time with you.

(Sell CDs).

For our final song, we'll present a better vision for tomorrow. The title is simply "Volare," and that is the Italian word for "Fly." And the words of the song suggest that we'd be so very happy to get up into the beautiful sky and away from all our troubles. So, we'll present this as our final wish to you.

"Volare!"
