

Thank you very much.

Have you had a good time? We hope that you've enjoyed these great songs from the past.

(Sell CDs)

For our final selection this evening, we'll close with a rock-and-roll song first written and recorded by the great Chuck Berry in 1958. It was probably the first song ever written about how much money a musician could make playing the guitar. It was inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame in 1999.

So, get ready to rock out with our version of that great Chuck Berry hit - "Johnny B. Goode."