

Thank you.

Now, we'll jump way back to 1930 and a song written and recorded in that year by the great Hoagy Carmichael. Since then, many artists have recorded it, and in 1960, a recording by Ray Charles, a native of Georgia, led to the song's adoption as the official state song of Georgia.

Here we go with that great hit "Georgia On My Mind."