

Thank you.

We'll switch moods for this next selection written back in 1940 and first recorded by the great Ethel Waters. Since then, it's been recorded by virtually every artist of note.

I'm sure you'll remember this one. It's called "Taking A Chance On Love."