

Thank You.

You know, each time we come to play for you, we like to feature the music of an artist or artists of the 40s or 50s. Tonight, we'd like to have you remember a famous male vocalist who was born in the same year that I was - 1936. He was married to Sandra Dee. Tragically, because of his bouts with rheumatic fever in his early childhood, he died of heart failure very early in life at the age of 37.

Anyone have a guess as to who I'm describing? Right, Bobby Darin.

Tonight, we'll perform three of Bobby's greatest hits. We'll begin with his first million seller, which he himself wrote and recorded in 1958. It's about a person who is interrupted while taking a bath by party goers in the next room. It's called "Splish, Splash."
