

Thank you. Here's a song from the 1947 movie "The Paleface" which starred Bob Hope and Jane Russell. The most popular version of the song was recorded by Dinah Shore - remember Dinah? The song tells the story of a young lass who really doesn't like the apparel that women were expected to wear in the new wild west territory. She wants to return back to where she can wear her "Buttons And Bows."