

Thank you very much. You're very kind.

Now, we're really going to switch gears. As you may remember, I am of Czech heritage. My great grandfather came to America in 1874 and settled in Nebraska. So, I tell everyone that when I die, I'll just be a cancelled Czech.

Well, the national dance of the Czech Republic is the polka, and we're going to play one of the most famous polkas of all time for you. It was written in the Roaring Twenties - 1927 - and was #1 on the Hit Parade in 1939.

Here's our version of this great polka - the "Beer Barrel Polka." Sing along if you know it.
