

Thank you.

For our next selection, we'll go back to the year 1928 to a musical entitled "Whoopee." In that musical, Eddie Cantor presents a dire warning to men about the "trap" of marriage. The song begins with the celebration of a wedding, honeymoon and marital bliss, but moves on to babies and responsibilities of marriage.

So here's what can happen when one is engaged in "Makin' Whoopee."