Good evening. Welcome to our Mardi Gras celebration, which is French for "Fat Tuesday," the day before Ash Wednesday. We're the Mixed Nuts, and we've got a great program of fantastic songs for this holiday celebration. We hope you'll take this opportunity to get up and dance with your partner to this fine array of songs.

We'll begin our celebration with a song that was written back in 1945 about a Pennsylvania Dutch dish. Versions of the song were recorded by Dinah Shore, by Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians, and by Ella Fitzgerald.

Here's a mouth-watering delight that might even make you a bit hungry. It's title: "Shoo Fly Pie and Apple Pan Dowdy."

For our next song, we'll switch gears now and play a song with a tango beat. It began in Argentina, but it was recorded in America in 1951 by Tony Martin and later by Louis Armstrong and many others.

If you like a tango beat, you'll love this song. Its title suggests a very enticing situation - "I Get Ideas."

Now, We'll jump back in time, all the way to 1921, and play a song that was composed in response to the popularity of the Rudolph Valentino film "The Sheik."

It was a Tin Pan Alley hit and became a part of the repertoire of all of the jazz bands at that time.

Here we go with the tale of "The Shiek Of Araby."

Thank you. Now, we're going to take you way back to 1930 to a song written by Hoagy Carmichael. It is considered both a jazz and a pop standard and has been recorded by such artists as Benny Goodman, Bing Crosby, Bobby Darin, the Mills Brothers, Louis Armstrong, and the Glenn Miller Orchestra.

The lyrics tell us to kick back and enjoy life, linger in the shade of a kind old tree, throw away our troubles, and dream under blue skies.

Come with us now as we journey "Up A Lazy River."

We'll go way back to the mid-1920s for our next selection. It's been recorded many many times, but the most famous of artists was Louie Armstrong. Remember Louie? Other recording artists were Louis Prima, Frank Sinatra, Patti Page, and Nat King Cole.

The words of the song tell us how our everyday demeanor affects those around us. Here we go with "When You're Smiling."

When you're smiling, when you're smiling, the whole world smiles with you. When you're laughing, when you're laughing, the sun comes shining through. But when you're crying, you bring on the rain, so stop your sighing, be happy again. Keep on smiling, 'cause when you're smiling, the whole world smiles with you.

We'll switch moods to a Latin beat for this next selection. It originated in Argentina under the Spanish title "El Choclo" and became one of most popular tangos in Argentina. In the United States, it was given English lyrics and recorded by such artists as Tony Martin, Billy Ekstein, Nat King Cole, Guy Lombardo, and Connie Francis.

So, start thinking in a Latin beat as _____ sings about a fascinating aspect of her special friend. He has the gift of a "Kiss Of Fire."

We're going to close with one of the all-time greats in swing music. It was popularized by the great Glenn Miller back in 1939, and is one of the best-known arrangements of the Big Band era. Many other Big Bands recorded it after it became popular. Here is our arrangement of "In The Mood."
