Thank you very much.

Time to pick up the tempo a bit with a song by another British rock band - "Queen" - composed and performed by their leader - Freddie Mercury. Mercury wrote the song in 1981 as a tribute to Elvis Presley. It became the first #1 hit for Queen and Mercury in the US, topping the charts for 4 weeks here as well as 7 weeks in Australia.

_____ and I will join our voices now in this great hit from the 80s that describes a "Crazy Little Thing Called Love."

Each time we play for you, we like to showcase a noted artist or artists of yesteryear. Let's see if you can guess the name of the artists from the clues I'll give you.

This duo was born in 1946 and 1950. During their rather brief career, they recorded ten albums and had three #1 hits and five #2 hits on the Billboard charts and fifteen #1 hits on the Adult Contemporary charts. Any ideas? Here's some more clues: They sold more than 90 million records worldwide, making them one of the best selling music artists of all time. Still don't know.

Well, here's your final clue. They were brother and sister, and the female died in 1983 of anorexia. Yes, you got it - The Carpenters.

For our first selection, we'll perform a song they recorded in 1969 which hit the number 1 spot on the charts and remained there for 4 weeks. Here's _____ with our version of that great Carpenter hit - "Close To You."

 Ah, _____ close to you._____

Thank you very much.

For our final great hit by the Bee Gees, we'll go to the movie "Saturday Night Fever" in 1977 and perform the song that hit the #1 place on the charts in 1978, remaining there for 4 weeks. It became one of their signature songs. An interesting sidelight: This song was used in a study to train medical professionals to provide the correct number of chest compressions per minute while performing CPR.

So, let's everybody get to rockin' as _____ sings that great Bee Gees hit - "Stayin' Alive."

~~Congratulations. We're so very glad to be back with you again. It's always a pleasure for us when we come to play for you here.~~

~~Tonight, we're going to sing some of our favorite songs from yesteryear. And we'll be asking you some questions about the songs, so please pay attention and let's get ready to rumble.~~

~~Our opening selection, "That's Entertainment" was featured in a 1953 musical "The Band Wagon" starring Gene Kelly and Fred Astaire.~~

This next song is a waltz, and it has two titles. It was recorded by the great John Denver back in 1974 as "Annie's Song," but it soon became known by the first line of the lyric - "You Fill Up My Senses."

Here's _____ to sing this beautiful song of love.

Thank you. Thank you very much. Our next TV theme also starred Ron Howard and ran for 10 years, from 1974 to 1984. It presented an idealized vision of life in the 1950s and 1960s. Often, the setting for the show was a drive-in restaurant featuring a pin ball machine and a juke box playing the in background. Does anyone know what show I'm describing? Right - "Happy Days." Remember Arthur Fonzerella - the Fonz. Who played the part of the Fonz? Right - Henry Winkler.

Here we go with the theme from "Happy Days."

Our next selection, although written in 1957 as a folk song, became a Grammy Award winning hit for Roberta Flack in 1972. Billboard ranked it as the number one hit single for that year. Since then, it's been recorded by artists including Celine Dion, Diana Ross, Elvis Presley, Johnny Mathis and literally hundreds of others.

Thank you. Thank you very much. How're we doing? Are you enjoying your trip recalling the great hits of the 70s?

Each time we play for you, we like to feature the music of a great performer or performers from the past. Our featured artists today is a trio of brothers born on the Isle Of Mann, moving briefly to Australia, and then returning to reside in the UK for most of their career. During their time, they sold over 220 million records, making them one of the world's best-selling artists of all time. They were inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall Of Fame in 1997, and they are the third most successful band in Billboard charts history, after the Beatles and the Supremes.

Who are we talking about? (Response). You got it - The Bee Gees!

For our performance this afternoon/evening, we'll present three of their greatest hits. The first was written and recorded by them in 1977, hit the top of the charts in December of that year and remained in the Top 10 for a record 17 weeks.

So, _____ and I will lead off this segment with that great Bee Gees hit - "How Deep Is Your Love?"

We're going to jump way forward in time for our next selection. It was written rather recently in 1977 and first performed by Liza Minelli. Do you know who Liza's mother was? Right - Judy Garland. Liza sang this song in a movie about one of our greatest cities here in the US. Later, it was recorded by Frank Sinatra and Tony Bennett.
