

Thank you.

Our next carol is technically not a carol, but it is widely performed as such. It was written in 1956 by Jester Hairston, and Harry Belafonte's version became a million record hit. It has since been recorded by such notables as Mahalia Jackson, twice by Andy Williams, Anne Murray, Jim Reeves, and a ton of other artists.

_____ and I will join to sing this great Calypso carol - "Mary's Boychild."
