

Thank you very much.

We're rapidly approaching the end of our time with you. For our next to last song this afternoon/evening, we'll play a traditional Jamaican folk song that became a big hit for Harry Belafonte in 1956. It is one of the best known of calypso songs. It's a work song sung by dock workers working the night shift loading bananas onto ships. The lyrics describe how their work has progressed and now, they're ready to go home.

Once again, _____ will join me in singing this Belafonte classic - "Day-O"
