 I have got a sweet-ie known as Su-sie. _____ In the word of

A°7                      A                      C♯m                      G♯7                      C♯m 13                      #                      #                      -                      #                      #
 Shake-speare, she's a wow! _____ Though all of you may know her,

G♯7                      E                      B7                      E                      E7
 19                      o                      #                      o                      o                      o too,                      I'd like to shout right now: _____ If

A                      A♯7
 24                      o                      o                      o                      o
 you knew Su-sie like I know Su-sie, oh, oh,

E7
 30                      o                      o                      o                      o
 oh, what a girl! _____ There's none so clas-sy as this fair

E Aug                      A                      B7                      E7
 35                      o                      o                      o                      o
 las-sy. Oh! Oh! Ho-ly, mo-ley, what a chas-sis!

A                      A7                      D                      C♯ C
 40                      o                      o                      o                      o
 We went a rid-ing, par-ty, she she's meek did - n't balk. _____ But

B7                      E7
 44                      o                      o                      o                      o
 Back from a Yon-kers, I'm moth - the one dear, that had save to walk! If in tax - i,                      moth - er come come your child!
