East is east, and west is west, and the wrong one I have chose. bur - y me in this prair - ie, take me where the ce - ment grows.

Let's go where I'll keep on wear - ing those frills and flow-ers and Let's move down to some big town where they love a gal by the but-tions and bows, and rings and things and but-tions and cut of her clothes, and I'll stand out in but-tions and bows.                      Don't bows.                      They love me in buck-skin or skirts that I've home - spun.                      But they'll love me long - er, strong-er where my friends don't tote a gun! My
