

Good evening. We're very glad to be back again. It's always a fun time for us when we come to play for you here.

Tonight, we're again going take you down memory lane and revisit some of the biggest hit songs from yesterday. And I'd like asking you some questions about your favorite old singing stars and old-timey tunes.

Our opening selection, "That's Entertainment" was featured in a 1953 movie called "The Band Wagon" starring Fred Astaire.

This next song is a waltz, and it has two titles. It was recorded by the great John Denver back in 1974 as "Annie's Song," but it soon became known by the first line of the lyric - "You Fill Up My Senses."

Here's a recording of this beautiful song.
