The musical score consists of eight staves of music for voice and piano. The vocal part is in common time, major key, with a treble clef. The piano part is indicated by Roman numerals (C, D7, G) above the staff. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. Chords are marked above the piano staff at measures 91, 97, 103, 109, 114, 120, 125, 130, and 135. The vocal part includes eighth and sixteenth note patterns, while the piano part features eighth-note chords. Measure 91 starts with a piano introduction followed by the vocal line. Measures 97-103 continue the vocal line. Measures 109-114 conclude the first section. Measures 120-125 begin the second section. Measures 130-135 end the piece. The lyrics describe a funeral procession for a man named Claxton, the sound of a steamboat on the Wabash River, and the activities of hobos traveling through the jungle.
