The creek and the creak-ing old mill, Mag-gie, where we sat in the long, long a - go. The green grove is gone from the say that I'm fee-ble with age, Mag-gie, my steps are less spright-ly than then. My face is a well writ-ten page, Mag-gie, but Mag-gie, as the spray by the white break-ers flung. But to me you're as now we are aged and grey, Mag-gie, and the trials of life near-ly done. Let us sing of the days that are gone, Mag-gie, when you and I were young, when you and I were young.
