

Good evening. We're so very glad to be back with you again. It's always a fun time for us when we come to play for you here.

Once again tonight, we're going take you down memory lane and revisit some of the biggest hit songs from yesteryear. Our opening number was "Sweet Georgia Brown," written back in 1925. You'll remember it as the theme song of the Harlem Globetrotters basketball team.

Our next selection is a waltz from way back - 1915 to be exact. It's been recorded by many artists, including Bing Crosby and Mitch Miller.

This should bring back memories. In fact, that's the title of the song - "Memories." Here's _____ to sing it for you.
