

Thank you. Thank you very much.

We'll pick up the tempo quite a bit with our next selection written back in 1857 by another Episcopal priest from Pennsylvania, Reverend John Henry Hopkins. Here's the story of the Magi from the East who relied on guidance from a heavenly apparition to find their way to the birth location of the Christ child.

_____ will don her royal robes and sing the famous carol - "We, Three Kings."