

Thank you.

Another great musical about the old west was one written by Irving Berlin back in 1946 called "Annie, Get Your Gun." The great Ethel Merman sang this song about a young lady, Annie Oakley, who was very proficient in the handling of the six-gun but found it really did her no good when it came to helping her land her man.

Here's _____ to sing this tale of woe - "You Can't Get A Man With A Gun."
