

Small World Polka

Keyboard

(Keyboard) F B♭ Gm C7/G /C F (Sax) C7

The score consists of two staves. The top staff is for the Keyboard, starting with an F major chord (three eighth notes on the first, third, and fifth strings). It then moves to a B♭ major chord (three eighth notes on the second, fourth, and sixth strings), followed by a Gm chord (two eighth notes on the first and third strings), a C7/G chord (two eighth notes on the first and third strings), a half note C (one eighth note on the first string), another F major chord (three eighth notes on the first, third, and fifth strings), and finally a C7 chord (two eighth notes on the first and third strings). The bottom staff is for the Saxophone, which plays a single eighth note on the first string throughout the entire sequence.
