

Thank You.

We'll pick up the tempo a bunch with this fun song written and performed by Meghan Trainor in 2014. It spent eight weeks atop the Billboard Hot 100 and was certified diamond by the Recording Industry Association of America (RIAA). It also topped the charts in various countries including Australia, Canada, and the UK, and was the fourth best-selling song of 2014 with sales of 11 million copies worldwide.

So, get ready to rock out as _____ and I tell you that in reality - it's just "All About That Bass."
