

Thank you.

This next song could be one that all of us out here might adopt as our theme song. It's a jazz standard written back in 1942 by Duke Ellington and was recorded by the Ink Spots in 1943. We'd like to dedicate this song to all folks who may now be residing in retirement homes across our country. Here is 'Don't Get Around Much Anymore.'"