

Thank you.

Let's pick up the tempo with this next song written and recorded by the great country singer Merle Haggard back in 1969. The song was one of the most famous of Haggard's career and was at the #1 spot on the country charts that year as well as the being the album of the year in 1970.

_____ and I will join together now to describe life in a particular community in Oklahoma. Here's what it's like to be an "Okie From Muskogee."