There once was a far-mer who took a young miss in back of the barn where he gave her a lec-ture on hors-es and chick-ens and eggs and told her that she had such beau-ti-ful man-ners that suit-ed a girl of her charms, a girl that he want-ed to take in his wash-ing and iron-ing and then if she did, then they could get mar-ried and have lots of girl told the far-mer that he'd bet-ter stop, or she'd call her fath-er and he called a tax-i and got there be-fore ver-y long, 'cause some-one was do-in' his lit-tle girl right for a change, and so that's why he said, "If you mar-ry her, son, you're bet-ter off sin-gle 'cause it's al-ways been my be-lief, that mar-riage will bring a man noth-ing but
